 2. The following are the existing student governments:
 - a. ASUCD
 - b. GSA
 - c. Law Student Association (LSA)
- C. Registered student organization—student organization registered with the Center for Student Involvement and formed to provide for charitable, service, social, cultural, artistic, recreational, or educational activities consistent with the educational mission of the University.
- D. Campus interest group—organization registered with Conference and Event Services whose members are associated with the University through employment, student, or alumni status, or as spouses of employees or students; and that have organized to provide charitable, service, social, artistic, recreational, or educational activities not in conflict with those of the University.

- E. UCD support group—organization recognized by the Chancellor that is created and operated in support of institutional interests and has as its purpose the raising of funds or providing of financial or other support for the activities of the campus.
- F. Alumni relations program—activities conducted by the Office of Alumni Relations that are developed and conducted for the benefit of both the Cal Aggie Alumni Association and University; are developed and conducted for the benefit of UC Davis alumni or Association members; or lead to direct support of the University.
 - 1. Alumni group—a group that is organized and operated solely for the benefit of the University and its alumni with a demonstrated geographic or special interest affinity; is recognized by the Cal Aggie Alumni Association; and whose membership consists of UC Davis alumni.
 - 2. Constituency alumni group—a group that, in addition to the requirements provided above, is organized and operated for the benefit of a school, college, department, or other administrative or academic unit, and whose purpose is to provide support to the constituent unit and the alumni of that unit.
- G. Campus recreation student organization—organization recognized by the Department of Campus Recreation whose purpose is to provide students with opportunities to participate and develop skills in a particular activity of interest and develop leadership skills to enable life-long learning opportunities.

III. Policy

- A. Responsibilities of organizations
 - 1. Organizations must comply with all applicable University and campus rules and regulations and local, State, and Federal laws. Representatives of organizations must become familiar with University and campus policy, rules, and regulations pertaining to their organizations' association with the campus.
 - 2. Failure of an organization or its members to comply with University and campus policy, facility use policy, or standards of conduct may result in revocation of the organization's privileges, recognition, registration, or other appropriate discipline or administrative action.
- B. Use of the University name
 - 1. Constituent organizations, support groups, alumni groups and constituency alumni groups may be permitted, with the Chancellor's approval, to use "University of California, Davis," or an abbreviation thereof, as part of its own name.
 - 2. Any campus organization may use, without prior approval, the University name or an abbreviation thereof as part of its name only to describe location.
 - 3. Any campus organization may use terms such as "campus" or "Davis campus" as part of its own name without approval.
 - 4. A campus organization may state its relationship with the University or that its membership is composed of students, faculty, or staff of the University, but shall not indicate or imply that it is acting on behalf of the University without prior specific authorization of the Chancellor.
- C. Nondiscrimination

The University prohibits illegal, arbitrary, or unreasonable discriminatory practices. Campus organizations receiving University privileges, assistance, or supervision must abide by the University's policy on nondiscrimination to qualify for any University privileges or assistance.
